Themes to Inspire

Steve Clarke

Three Student’s Books and Teacher Books (one for each year of Key Stage 3) that cover the non-statutory programme of study through an exploration of thematic issues and concepts.

The Pupil’s Books contain a series of lessons in three major themes, each with a big assignment at the end which allows you to assess pupils’ progress against the eight-level scale.

Detailed notes in the Teacher’s Resource Books support how to plan each theme, carry out lessons and how to best assess individual pupils’ progress.

“The best Key Stage 3 RE resource I have ever seen in all my (30) years of teaching.” Helen Miller, Head of RE, Brynmawr School

“Lots of learning opportunities here. Some good ideas here for the classroom. I can really see that Steve Clarke is a good teacher.” Paul Gateshill, Principal Consultant for Inclusion and Religious Education, Surrey

Religions to InspiRE

Lorraine Abbott, Steve Clarke, Diane Kolka, Jan Hayes and Kanwar Ranvir Singh

Six ‘by religion’ books that exemplify the themes and expand them from the points of view of the major religions of the UK.

The Pupil’s Books engage all your pupils in their learning and enable them to progress with differentiated pupil-centred activities and a variety of stimulus material for each lesson.

The Teacher’s Resource Books provide the support to help you teach, plan and assess learning whether you are a non-specialist or a time-strapped Religious Education teacher.

“This is an excellent book [Religion to InspiRE: Islam]. Special care has been taken to ensure its accuracy according to mainstream Islam. I would highly recommend its use for educational and personal purposes.”

Sheikh Dr Hojjat Ramzy, Chair of the Education Committee of the Muslim Council of Britain

RS Review
Editorial board: Sarah K. Tyler, Gordon Reid and Jon Mayled (Online editor)
Subscribe to RS Review and give your students the edge they need to achieve their best grade.
In each issue, subject specialists provide analysis of religions, as well as ethical and philosophical theory in a stimulating focused way, for A-level students to develop independent learning and exam skills.
• Articles pose challenging questions such as the ‘Marx and religion’ and ‘In defence of Judas Escariot’, encouraging debate and improving students’ critical skills
• Key theories and religious questions are put into A-level context
• Stretch and challenge articles improve understanding of difficult specification topics
A subscription includes three magazines per year (September, December and April). Extra online resources include revision PowerPoints summarising key topics, questions and arguments that can be used in class, plus teaching notes and extension materials to help you get the most out of the magazine.
RS Review magazine is also available in two digital formats via Dynamic Learning:

eMagazine
An annual subscription gives students the full content of each issue in a digital format so they can:
• Download and view on two devices
• Add, edit and organise notes
• Access the whole volume for as long as they need to

Magazine Archive
Available through the Dynamic Learning platform, the Magazine Archive offers easy, 24/7 online access to 11 years’ worth of magazine content so you can:
• Search back issues and additional online resources
• Encourage students to undertake independent study by accessing the archive anytime, anywhere
• Create lessons or provide links to articles for students to use with extension activities and research projects
